

The Carpet Project is all about informing visitors of the historical connection of carpet manufacture, which was once the major industry of Kidderminster.

In addition to the historical aspect, it was our intention to bring much needed colour to this newly refurbished station and bring it to life.

We are proud of our heritage and want to 'WELCOME' people to our town too