

And finally, 24th August 2024

The boat is completed with lettering, conveying the link between Husum and Kidderminster and, the name and motto of the organization that took on the adoption of the station to improve its appearance, make it more interesting, informative and colorful.