

Just a little bit of imagination, and you can envisage where the five proposed oblong planters will be installed, just a little way forward from the wall seen above, to avoid existing wall weep holes.

They will be very much like the ones installed by Droitwich Spa Station Adopters, who have graciously provided us with the Risk Assessment Method Statement (RAMS) they produced to obtain permission for the installation.

This will hopefully make life easier for our application!