

The boat was loaded onto the trailer (by u3a volunteers Alan and Martin, together with Hextons neighbors), and transported slowly to Kidderminster by local farmer Adrian Dale. Meanwhile, Gilbert and John were busy with Martin from Droitwich Spa, (supplier of the sleepers), installing the wooden surround and matting. They did well, and it was all ready and waiting for the new arrival. And here it is! 11AM

