Volunteers

It is an exciting project and very quickly we acquired a core of volunteers who all wanted to make a difference at the station.

However, we still welcome more members who feel they would like to contribute to this project. The main volunteer core we need to increase is on the gardening projects. "Many hands make light work" and the more we have the easier it will be to maintain the ongoing projects.